MISS STEPHENS WEARIED BY THE STETSON ROW.

First Church Healer Had Twice Bented and Twice Returned to Her Teacher Said She'd Take Her Life it She Cou'd Not "Break This Influence."

Miss Marion K. Stephens, for many years a leader in the work of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city and a practitioner under her faith, died of ges poisoning on Saturday night in the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred C. Weeks at 526 West 111th street.

Miss Stephens had twice denied Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, the former head of the First Church, who was deposed by the directors of the Mother Church in Boston on November 18 of last year and twice she had returned to allegiance to her

Though Miss Stephens had been one of those pupils of Mrs. Stetson's designated as members of "the inner circle" her last defection had come when she went voluntarily before the directors of the Mother Church in Boston last October and gave testimony upon which, in conjunction with that of other pupils of the New York leader.
